CLASS OF 2017:

On behalf of more than 150,000 alumni around the world, welcome to Duke University. You are beginning an adventure that will be rich, challenging and life-changing. But take it from us—it will also be a whole lot of fun.

To help you embark on your journey, the Duke Alumni Association has compiled this book of names, faces and useful information about your new home. We hope it will be helpful as you get to know your classmates and learn about the places and traditions that characterize life at Duke. And even now—as you begin to find your path at Duke—you are part of that legacy. As much as Duke will change you, you will change Duke. It's up to you to write your own chapter of what it means to be a Blue Devil.

I know it's hard to believe, but before you know it, you will be graduating and preparing for life after Duke. Even before that day comes, the Duke Alumni Association is here to help you explore your career options, to connect you with friends and contacts, and to celebrate all the great things about being part of the Duke community. We hope to see you at Forlines House throughout your time on campus—and for many years to come.

In the meanwhile, look closely at the classmates who are beginning this journey with you. Their faces will soon be familiar. Some will become your lifelong friends. Keep this book as a memory of where you all started—and how far you will go, together, as Duke Blue Devils.

Forever Duke,

1838-39

Brown's Schoolhouse is formally organized in northwest Randolph County by the Union Institute Society, a group of Methodists and Quakers under the leadership of Rev. Brantley York.

1841

North Carolina issues a charter for the school, called the Union Institute Academy.

1842

Braxton Craven (1822-1882) becomes head of the institution.

1851

Union Institute is incorporated by the North Carolina legislature as Normal College, with graduates licensed to teach in the state's public schools. The college awards its first degrees in 1853.

1858

Normal College's 41 alumni organize an alumni association, beginning one of the oldest organizations in service to the university.

1859

Upon affiliation with the Methodist Church, Normal College changes its name to Trinity College. The motto Eruditio et Religio (Knowledge and Religion) is adopted.

1871

Chi Phi is organized with assistance of the alumni association as first student social organization. Alpha Tau Omega follows in 1872 and Kappa Sigma in 1873.

1878

Mary, Persis and Theresa Giles become the first women to be awarded degrees.

1838-39 Randolph County campus

1924 Women's Hiking Club

1881

Yao-ju ("Charlie") Soong, from Wenchang, China, enrolls, becoming the school's first international student.

1887

John Franklin Crowell (1857-1931) is elected president.

1888

First football game is played, with Trinity defeating the University of North Carolina, 16-0, on Thanksgiving Day.

1889

A cheer beginning "Rah! Rah! Rah! For the deep dark blue!" is printed in the Trinity Archive, the earliest evidence of blue as the official school color.

1892

Trinity College is relocated to Durham after Washington Duke and Julian S. Carr persuade the board of trustees to move the college to their progressive "New South" city. Duke contributes $85,000 for buildings and endowment, and Carr donates the site that is now East Campus.

1894

John C. Kilgo (1861-1922) is elected president of Trinity.

1905 President Theodore Roosevelt speaking on campus

1896

Washington Duke contributes $100,000 for endowment, supplementing it by a like amount in 1899 and 1900. With the first gift, he urges that women, then day students only, be treated equally with men. The Mary Duke Building is constructed as the first women's dorm.

Booker T. Washington speaks on campus. Trinity is the first white institution of higher education in the South to invite the African-American leader to speak.

Joseph Smith Maytubby of Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, becomes the school's first Native American graduate.

1903

The Trinity Board of Trustees turns back widespread appeals for Professor John Spencer Bassett's dismissal following publication of his editorials questioning prevailing views on race relations. The episode, later known as the "Bassett Affair," becomes a milestone for academic freedom in U.S. higher education. Shortly thereafter, President Theodore Roosevelt extols Trinity's stand in a campus speech.

1904

After intermittent periods of law instruction during the 19th century, a permanent School of Law is founded.

1905

The first edition of the Chronicle, the student newspaper, is published.

1910

William Preston Few (1867-1940) is inaugurated as president of Trinity.

1917

Charles R. Bagley '14 is selected as college's first Rhodes Scholar.

1919

Phi Beta Kappa chapter is chartered, with the first installation of members in 1920.

1922

The Chronicle begins using the nickname "Blue Devils" for Trinity athletic teams.

1924

Duke University is founded, named in honor of Washington Duke and his family. James B. Duke creates The Duke Endowment, a family philanthropic foundation that supports education, religion and health care in the Carolinas.

1941

Robert Lee Flowers (1870-1951) is elected president of Duke.

1942

Duke and Durham host the Rose Bowl, which is relocated from Pasadena, Calif., following the attack on Pearl Harbor. It remains the only Rose Bowl played outside of Pasadena.

1949

A. Hollis Edens (1901-1968) becomes president of Duke.

1953

James B. Duke Professorships are inaugurated with the announcement of 13 initial appointments funded by Charles Duke's daughter, Doris.

1954

The Allen Building, named for George G. Allen, is completed.

1939 Sarah P. Duke Gardens

Alice Mary Baldwin, dean of the Woman's College 1923-47

1955

Renovated and renamed Flowers Building is dedicated for use by the Student Union, a student-led organization that planned and carried out campus-wide recreational and cultural activities.

1960

J. Deryl Hart (1894-1980) is elected president of Duke.

1961

Admissions policy is amended to affirm equality of opportunity regardless of race, creed or national origin. African-American students first enrolled in the Law School in 1961 and the Divinity and Graduate Schools in 1962. The first five African-American undergraduate students enrolled in the fall of 1963.

1963

Douglas M. Knight (1921-2005) is elected president of Duke.

1966

The Duke Lemur Center, the world's largest sanctuary for rare and endangered prosimian primates, is established.

1968

Approximately 1,500 students and faculty join the Silent Vigil, the largest student demonstration on campus. Over eight days, students gather on the main quadrangle in front of Duke Chapel, at first to mourn the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr., but later to protest the university's treatment of non-academic workers, among other campus issues.

A major revision to the curriculum is phased in, emphasizing greater flexibility in course selection, tutorials and small-group learning.

1969

Terry Sanford (1917-98), former governor of North Carolina, is elected president of Duke.

Art Museum is dedicated on East Campus.

School of Business Administration, the last of the schools requested by James B. Duke, is established. The name was changed to the Fuqua School of Business in honor of benefactor John Brooks Fuqua in 1983.

A major library addition, named in honor of William R. Perkins, opens, increasing collection space five-fold.

A. Hollis Edens Residence Hall and Paul M. Gross Chemical Laboratory are named.

1971

The Institute of Policy Sciences and Public Affairs, precursor to the Sanford School of Public Policy, is founded.

1972

Woman's College and Trinity College merge, becoming Trinity College of Arts and Sciences.

Young Trustee position is established for the board of trustees, allowing a student or recent graduate to serve.

Duke Governing Student Organizations

Duke Student Government

Duke Student Government serves as a voice for Duke students on campus. Executive and legislative members work to represent their constituents in all issues, including but not limited to improving facilities management and Krzyzewskiville. <https://dsg.dukegroups.duke.edu/>

Duke University Union

The student-led Duke University Union provides a diverse range of cultural, intellectual, educational, recreational and social programming to complement the academic experience of Duke University students and to provide enrichment for university faculty, staff and employees, and the surrounding community. In cooperation with the staff of the Office of Student Activities, the University Union serves as a leadership training ground for its officers, chairs and committee members. Through experiential learning, they develop knowledge and appreciation of professionalism and the fundamental management skills of effective motivation, organization and communication. <http://duuke.org/>

The Origins of the Blue Devil

Since debuting at a football game in October 1929, the Blue Devil mascot has been an inexorable part of Duke athletics—a symbol of Duke's cunning and competitive student-athletes and fans. But did you know that the Blue Devil owes its existence to a troop of French soldiers?

It's true. The Chasseurs Alpins fought valiantly for the French resistance in World War I, earning the nickname "Les Diables Bleus" for their bravery, as well as their flamboyant style. Their uniforms featured flowing blue capes and jaunty berets.

When the United States entered the war, units of the French Blue Devils toured the country to raise money for the war effort. Irving Berlin captured their spirit in song, describing them as "strong and active, most attractive ... those Devils, the Blue Devils of France."

As the war was ending in Europe, the Trinity College Board of Trustees lifted its quarter-century ban of football on campus. Trinity began intercollegiate competition in 1920. That first year the team was referred to as the Trinity Eleven, the Blue and White, or the Methodists.

In September 1921, the Trinity Chronicle launched a campaign for a "catchy name, one of our own possession that would be instantly recognizable nationwide in songs, yells and publicity." There were numerous nominations, including Catamounts, Grizzlies, Badgers, Dreadnaughts and Captains, which was in honor of Coach W.W. "Cap" Card. The newspaper editors urged a selection using the school's colors, favoring Blue Titans, Blue Eagles, Polar Bears, Blue Devils, Royal Blazes or Blue Warriors. None won strong favor, and the football season passed with no official selection of a name.

The editors of the Archive and Chanticleer agreed that the newspaper staff should choose a name and "put it over." Thus William H. Lander, as editor-in-chief, and Mike Bradshaw, as managing editor of the Trinity Chronicle, began referring to the athletic teams as the Blue Devils. Acknowledging that it was somewhat unpopular, they nevertheless believed it to be the best name nominated.

Blue Devils eventually caught on, and when a new football stadium opened in 1929, a Blue Devil mascot strode its sidelines. And it has ever since.

Duke University | Administration

Richard H. Brodhead President

You probably have a good idea of what he does, but if you'd like to learn more—or see whether you're right—there's lots of information on the president's website about who he is and what he's been doing at Duke since he arrived in 2004.

During orientation, he'll speak in Duke Chapel and then on another occasion host a reception so you can meet him and his wife, Cynthia. He likes talking with students (before coming to Duke, he spent 32 years at Yale University, teaching English and then serving as dean), so consider signing up to visit him during his regularly scheduled office hours (again, on the president's website). Or stop and talk with him when you see him walking around campus or attending Duke cultural and sporting events.

Peter Lange Provost

Lange is the university's chief academic officer, responsible for all aspects of Duke's teaching and research mission. The provost devotes much attention to the faculty appointment, promotion and tenure process; to the content of Duke's various academic programs; and to Duke's emphasis on interdisciplinarity and internationalism. In addition, the provost deals with issues concerning admissions, financial aid and information technology. His office is located down the hall from President Brodhead's in Allen Building. Feel free to stop by any time.

Tallman Trask III Executive Vice President/Treasurer

Trask is the chief business and financial officer for Duke, responsible for the management of all financial and administrative services of the university. He provides leadership for the various operations and activities that serve faculty, staff, students, alumni, visitors and friends of the university. Of special interest to first-year students, Trask oversees all campus services, OIT and the university architect. He has been at Duke since 1995 and always welcomes the opportunity to speak with students about their ideas to improve the campus.

Victor J. Dzau Chancellor for Health Affairs and CEO, Duke University Health System

Victor J. Dzau was appointed chancellor for health affairs at Duke University and president and CEO of the Duke University Health System in 2004. He is also James B. Duke Professor of Medicine and director of molecular and genomic vascular biology. As chancellor for health affairs, Dzau leads one of the preeminent medical institutions in the United States, one that is renowned for world-class patient care, medical instruction and research.

BLUE AND WHITE

FIGHTING SONG

G.E. LEFTWICH, Jr.

Tempo di March

Duke we thy an-thems raise. For all thy prais - - es un - told We'll sing for the Blue and White Whose co - lours we un fold Firm stands her line of blue For they are loy - al through and through Fight - ing with the spir - it true All for the love of old D. U.

Fight we'll fight With all our strength and might Win we can't So here we give a hand: Hey Rah Rah Rah Rah D - U - K - E Rah.

How to be a Cameron Crazy!

The Basics:

Duke fans are CLASSY, CREATIVE and FUNNY.

Above all else, don't take yourselves too seriously.

Screaming "Go to hell, Carolina, go to hell!" is always appropriate, but try to refrain from cheers that involve profanity.

Standard Cheers:

"Let's go, Duke!"

"Here we go, Devils, here we go!" clap-clap

"Let's go, Devils!" clap-clap, clap-clap-clap

"Go, Devils, go!" clap-clap-clap

Start these cheers loud and slow, and try to sustain them for a 35-second shot clock. If the band is playing during any of these cheers, try to follow the beat of the drums.

On bad calls, try chanting "We beg to differ," "I'm blind, I'm deaf, I wanna be a ref," "Three refs, no clue," or simply, "No! No! No!"

Cameron Etiquette:

Starting right away, you will hear the standard cheers. It might take a few minutes to catch on, but join right in, because the important thing is to BE LOUD. If you're not making noise, you're not doing your part.

As Cameron Crazies, we don't sit during the game ... so go to the gym and build up those calf muscles.

On the cheers that speed up, make sure you start them SLOW.

If you invent a new cheer, tell it to the people around you and make sure to go slow. This way, everyone has a chance to catch on.

While taunting a player, physical appearance or stupid actions are fair game; however, be careful not to cross the line. Things like drug addictions or assault charges are serious issues and not suitable for Cameron.

BE LOUD, BE LOUD, BE LOUD!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Duke's Original Campus

East Campus History

From 1925 to 1930, East Campus was Duke University. Even while the new buildings were going up, instruction continued, with five classes graduating during that time. Duke University was formed in 1924 around Trinity College, a school that had been established in 1838 in Randolph County, N.C., and had moved to Durham in 1892. The tract of land that became Trinity's campus had been the city's fairgrounds; a racetrack was located about where Baldwin Auditorium now stands. Leaders of Durham's tobacco industry supported the college. Julian S. Carr donated the property, and Washington Duke provided funds for the move and for buildings. Three of the original structures are still in use. Epworth Inn, a residence hall, and Crowell Science Building, now used by the Division of Student Affairs, were built in 1892. The Ark, built in 1898, was the site of the second intercollegiate basketball game in the state—Trinity versus Wake Forest in 1906 (Wake won, 24-10). It has also served as a bowling alley, a dining hall, and a student activities center.

In 1896, Trinity's president, John C. Kilgo, invited the noted African-American educator Booker T. Washington to speak. Trinity thereby became the first white institution of higher education in the South to host him. In 1905, President Theodore Roosevelt visited the campus, and praised the faculty and trustees for their pioneering stand on academic freedom in the Bassett Affair of 1903. As Trinity's reputation and enrollment grew, so too did the campus. By 1903, it consisted of 12 buildings. In 1904, the Law School was founded, and housed in the East Duke Building. The statue of The Sower, in front of East Duke Building, was given by Washington Duke's son, James B., in 1914. Several professors lived on "Faculty Row" inside the campus wall, a few yards west of the present Buchanan Boulevard. The wall was a gift of another of Washington Duke's sons, Benjamin; a statue of Ben, unveiled in 1999, stands in front of Baldwin Auditorium.

In 1924, the university was founded, being named in honor of Washington Duke. James B. Duke, who had made fortunes in both the tobacco and electrical power industries, provided $19 million for building and equipping the new school. In 1930, the Woman's College of Duke University opened on the Georgian-style East Campus, and Trinity College for men and the university's graduate and professional schools opened on the Gothic-style West Campus. In 1972, the men's and women's colleges were merged to form our present Trinity College of Arts and Sciences.

Student life on East has been shaped by the arts, by engineering, public service, and alternative residential arrangements. In fact, our first coed dorm was established there in 1896, thanks to a donation from Washington Duke, who favored equal educational opportunities for men and women. There were not enough women students enrolled to fill the new women's dorm, so President (later Bishop) Kilgo handpicked male students to occupy the vacant rooms. In the 1930s, engineering students lived in Southgate and took most of their classes on East; the Branson Building once housed an engineering lab.

Wilson House, beside the Union Building, has been the site of a number of innovative housing experiments. The dorm's residents offered a number of house courses, and produced The Wilsonian, a highly regarded dorm publication. In 1970-71, SHARE (The Student House for Academic and Residential Experimentation) was started in Wilson House. It later moved to Epworth, where the residents had been offering courses and workshops in weaving, silk screening, and film. Duke's Institute of the Arts was established in 1981 to integrate the arts into the educational process, particularly at the undergraduate level. It's located in the Bivins Building, and has hosted an Open House for the Arts, held in the fall.

Due perhaps to its proximity to downtown Durham, East Campus has often housed our public and civic service organizations. Trinity students helped stock Durham's woodpile for the poor during the harsh winter of 1918. During World War II, Woman's College students formed the College Organization for General Service (COGS), which assisted Duke and Durham in the war effort. Now the Community Service Center has its offices in the Crowell Building, continuing the traditional town-gown cooperation between Duke and Durham.

The Trinity campus has seen a full range of the collegiate life and continues its role as a vital part of Duke University and a reminder of its roots. Now members of your first-year class are invited to contribute their experiences to the ongoing history of the East Campus.
